

In Ontario, agents have been scurrying around to prevent North American Labor Party candidates Rick Saunders in Toronto and Lucylle Boikoff in St. Catherine's from repeating the 14 per cent vote of Alan Levinson in Vancouver three weeks ago.

The head of the Canadian Department of Manpower and Immigration Andras recently announced that this department's mobility program "will now force the unemployed to take the jobs we offer them...even 100 miles away." At the same time all efforts have been made to turn Canadian electoral politics into a sick joke; Andras' slave labor program was never submitted before the Canadian Parliament. Notorious agent and LEAA sidekick in the New Democratic Party Martin Schulman has come out in public support of Rosy the Clown for Mayor of Toronto.

In Canada, the Canadian Manpower (relocation) boards have succeeded in sucking in the Communist Party and the entire trade union apparatus, with the exception of the isolated resistance of the Quebec Federation of Labor. Under Andras' program slave laborers will be forced across provincial borders and will be pulled from the U.S. and from around the world to meet the labor skill requirements of Canada's redevelopment project slave labor camps.

CIVIL DEFENSE PERSONNEL TRAINED BY CIA/LEAA

Nov. 30 (IPS)--Civil emergency defense personnel around the country are currently being sent through the same CIA training mills which spawned and "educated" the murderous Green Berets, known for their slaughter of Vietnamese peasants.

The director of the Pueblo, Colorado Civil Defense Agency, Sam Musso, told IPS this week that their new Industrial Defense Coordinator, Air Force Lt. Col. Harry Haney, is uniquely qualified for his post, having just returned from the Army's Defense Civil Preparedness Agency (DCPA) Staff College at Battle Creek, Mich. Musso was trained at the school for civil disturbances at Fort Gordon, Georgia three years ago, which is also responsible for training the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA), the National Gestapo. He was followed by a contingent of Pueblo police and fire officials who trekked to Fort Gordon and other area officials who went to the DCPA College at Battle Creek.

According to Musso, the Military Police School at Fort Gordon, which runs the LEAA civil disturbance counterinsurgency course for LEAA agents, also runs the Schools on Emergency Planning and Industrial Defense for the DCPA, such as the one at Battle Creek. In the past, Fort Gordon has been responsible for training the CIA police Gestapos of Brazil, Indonesia, Vietnam and other Third World countries.

preparedness apparatus, confirmed Musso's assertions in an interview with IPS.

The Michigan official, Lt. Milton Jury, stated that representatives of local, county and state government, police and service agencies also receive their preparedness instruction at the DCPA Staff College at Battle Creek. The training program includes evacuation, relocation and food control--all counterinsurgency methods for population control developed by British Brigadier General Frank Kitson, under the tutelage of master brainwasher John Rawlings Rees, during World War II.

Jury also revealed that the LEAA provides the funds to train DCPA, police, military and civilian personnel in LEAA-style counterinsurgency operations. Happily, he noted the increasing "day-to-day" role that the civil defense apparatus is playing in civilian affairs.

IBM PAPERS NAME NCLC

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30 (IPS)--The International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) has collaborated with executive personnel of the IBM Corporation to produce and publicize a Pentagon Papers-type document which attempts to link the National Caucus of Labor Committees to terrorist activities and organizations. The IACP is a front group for the CIA and the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration.

The document, "IBM as a Target of Terrorism," opens with an account of supposed "real terrorist threats against IBM," and calls upon the corporation to institute "an effective intelligence system on the plans and acts of extremists and terrorists." To support that proposal, a special section of the document is devoted to the NCLC as "precisely the kind of organization that IBM should now be monitoring, using all its resources." The only other organizations mentioned by name are the CIA-directed Symbionese Liberation Army, the fascist Jewish Defense League, the American Nazi Party and the Ku Klux Klan.

The cover for the operation was a "12-day IACP training session" with top IBM executives, in the course of which the document was supposedly produced. IBM already maintains a large, well-trained security division, which serves as a major conduit for "former" CIA officers deployed into industrial security.

Under the title "The IBM Papers," the document was delivered over for publication in the Nov. 15 Berkeley Barb through agents at the so-called New York News Service--a basement recreation of Tuli Kupferberg, the semi-psychotic former member of the Fugs rock band.
