

divisions in the Yugoslav population can flare up. Prior to the Tenth Congress, Tito waged a victorious two-year fight against nationalists and parochial technocrats in the LCY itself, but in Yugoslavia, where over five nationalities coexist, the nationalist disease is an abiding problem for communist organizing.

The CIA is aware of this weakness and prepared to exploit it fully. Just in the last half of 1974, members of the CIA-backed Ustashi organization of Croatian fascists infiltrated Yugoslavia from Austria to commit terrorist vandalism.

To complement such provocations, CIA international press outlets have whipped their anti-Yugoslav propagandists into an unprecedented frenzy. One newspaper after another has run features on "Yugoslavia after Tito," in which takeover by the Soviet Union figures prominently. The Financial Times and Corriere della Sera repeatedly display with gloating satisfaction Tito's difficulties in implementing the Tenth Congress program.

In the last month, the so-called "Humanist International," led by zero-growther Sicco Mansholt, has come into action against the LCY. The arrest of several self-proclaimed "Marxist humanists" at Belgrade University, including actual members of the bogus Humanist International, brought a letter to the New York Times from Trilateral Commission chief Zbigniew Brzezinski, whose professional reputation is based on his anti-communist works.

SHAH TO LOSE HOLDINGS IN EUROPE?

Jan. 3 (IPS)--Sources high in the Italian government today confirmed widespread rumors that Western European states are actively considering the nationalization of Iranian holdings in Western Europe.

Nationalization would completely pull the rug out from under the Shah of Iran, Rockefeller's major operative in the Mideast.

The sources emphasized that discussions on nationalization were occurring at the Common Market level. No "wildcats"--nationalization on a country-by-country basis--are expected, the sources said.

The immediate impetus for the discussions may have come from the Shah's recent moves toward taking over the European industrial sector, as well as the billions of dollars of oil ransom which Western Europe currently owes to the Shah and other Rockefeller sheikhs in the Mideast.

The Italian sources disclosed that Iran has already purchased the entire Shell gasoline distribution network in Italy. This follows published reports in the French daily Le Monde and the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung, a West German newspaper, that the Shah intends to buy 50 per cent of Giovanni Agnelli's Fiat. It is this news which originally triggered the nationalization rumors.

DANISH ELECTIONS PLANNED TO TRAP WORKERS INTO "WAR MEASURES" GOVERNMENT

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 3 (IPS)--With unemployment levels soaring to more than 20 per cent of the Danish workforce this month, the Liberal minority government of Poul Hartling has set parliamentary elections for Jan. 9 in order to establish a new, ruling coalition with the Danish Social Democratic Party. Prime Minister Hartling intends to use the largest Danish working-class party, the Social Democrats, to form a coalition "war measures" government with the muscle to enforce austerity as Denmark's economy spirals downward into collapse.

Calling for a "Comprehensive Crisis Plan," Hartling proposes a 20 per cent reduction in real union wages by eliminating the automatic cost-of-living escalator in the current Labor Federation national wage agreement with the Employer Federation. Anker Jorgensen, the Social Democratic leader, already has publicly accepted this principle of wage reduction in his sham campaign, while quibbling about the extent the state should be allowed to intervene in labor/employer negotiations.

Fascism or Socialism?

Jorgensen's self-destructive campaign not only calls for drastic cuts in construction and public services, but is putting forward a program to "restructure" Danish society into decentralized "small societies" to "bring government closer to the people." This outright social-fascist scheme, pitting atomized social units against one another, expresses exactly the helplessness and dejection the Liberals are counting on to draw the Social Democrats into an austerity government that can implement co-participation policies and break the workforce completely.

Since the December 1973 elections, when the Liberals--with barely one-eighth of the seats in parliament--formed a government more or less by default, Prime Minister Hartling has manipulated the Danish working class into a mood of utter demoralization. In collaboration with his Economics Minister Nybo Anderson, a member of David Rockefeller's supranational Trilateral Commission, Hartling provoked strikes and wildcats over the summer and then slapped fines and penalties on the militants to show them that no tactic could bring any positive change.
