The 30 Years War Scenario

Kissinger Plans Internecine African Bloodbath

July 10 (NSIPS) — Vice President Nelson Rockefeller and Secretary of State Henry Kissinger have placed a Rand Corporation-scripted "Thirty Years War" scenario for the continent of Africa on a fully operational basis. In the wake of last week's Uganda hijacking-Israeli commando hoax, the fires of racial hatred and border war conflicts are being fanned intensively throughout all of Africa south of the Sahara. If Rockefeller and Kissinger are not stopped, by this fall sub-Saharan Africa will be an ungovernable, blood-drenched battleground of former nations and peoples, with millions slaughtered in border, race, and civil wars, and the remainder of humanity on that continent devastated in the ensuing, irreversible waves of disease and starvation.

This maximum of chaos and devastation is being directed at African nations at this time to avert the otherwise inevitable participation of these most debt-strapped nations in a rapidly approaching new world economic order. The Rockefeller-Kissinger faction requires genocide against millions of, in their view, "useless eaters," to secure the integrity of New York-held indebtedness, and insanely imagines that from the holocaust their current deployments would unleash, yet enough Africans will survive to permit the operation of a stable system of "labor-intensive agriculture" in Auschwitz-modeled camps dotting the continent, under the domination of the racist settler-regimes in South Africa and Rhodesia.

Specifically, the Rockefellers' African policy-makers have proceeded from a two-phase scenario for destabilization and genocide in Africa as a whole. In the first phase, fully activated by the Institute for Policy Studies' Uganda-hijacking affair, the three-nation East African community of Uganda, Kenya, and Tanzania are to be plunged into warfare among themselves, triggering a wider conflict which will rapidly drag in Somalia, Ethiopia, the Sudan, and even Mozambique and Lybia. These projected East African regional wars are in part designed to destroy the Organization of African Unity, and to otherwise weaken such governments as those in Somalia, Tanzania, and Mozambique for the second, August-September phase, which will detonate similar regional and civil wars throughout southern Africa to consolidate the rule of the fascist settle regimes.

"Kissinger is only doing what he loves to do best, the manipulation of crises..." wrote the Tanzanian Daily News in late June before the Uganda hijacking incidents. "To divide the ranks of the OAU member countries, to create new sources of tension...and thus save the remaining seats of colonialism."

The Rockefeller-Kissinger networks, which are now deployed with the Institute for Policy Studies again serving as the very heart of the beast, feature the following individuals and agencies as principal Nuremberg-quality criminals.

At the top of the network stands William Schaufele, Kissinger's African expert at the State Department, now working directly with the Institute for Policy Studies coordinators:

— Marvin Hollaway, a close friend and collaborator of former assistant to Kissinger, Anthony Lake, and a close friend and collaborator of Noam Chomsky, MIT's terrorist-conditioning linguist. Lake and Chomsky are responsible for coordinating the domestic side of the phase 2 southern Africa scenario, using alleged Ford Administration "deals with apartheid" to feed race riots in the U.S., and using the Institute for Policy Studies fronts, the American Committee on Africa (ACOA) and the Washington Office on Africa to focus public outrage on the Ford Administration for Kissinger's defense of the outlawed Rhodesian and South African regimes.

— Edgar Lockwood, who coordinates the activities of the Washington Office on Africa, a church and ACOA-related front which has profiled and kept voting records on the reaction of Congressmen to all African issues under the immediate direction of Chris Root.

— The Rev. George Houser, who heads the ACOA, which coordinates massive Institute for Policy Studies-church "liberal" support and manipulation of liberation movements and countergangs within Africa. Reverend Houser "discovered" Holden Roberto, the Angolan cannibal chief-tan, for the CIA, and only publicly withdrew ACOA support when association with Roberto's countergang FNLA threatened to discredit the whole ACOA operation.

— Peter Weiss, a lawyer currently coordinating ACOA legal operations regarding Africa with Sean MacBride, United Nations' absentee High Commissioner for Namibia (Southwest Africa), and with Sean Gervasi of the Center for National Security Studies, an Institute for Policy Studies thinktank. Through a "UN embargo" on corporate shipments of minerals out of Southwest Africa, Rhodesia, Weiss and pushed through the international body by MacBride, the ACOA is arranging deep-penetration operations against the cooperating Southwest Africa Peoples Organization (SWAPO) branches in both Zambia and Angola.

Phase I: Terrorism, Coups and Regional Wars In East Africa

To break up the pro-debt-moratorium, anti-apartheid block of the Organization of African Unity, a wave of destabilizations including terrorism, coup attempts, and border incidents was activated in East Africa immediately following the June 30 roll-over date beyond which Lower Manhattan banks could no longer roll over the unpaid debt of the developing countries — including the debt of several African countries who are now in a state of undeclared default. This wave of destabilizations was immediately coordinated and planned in advance by top terrorism controllers, who included Lt. General William Yarborough, who “predicted” the entire political sequence of events surrounding the Ugandan hijacking in East Africa in advance. Also involved was Bowyer Bell, East African specialist who is head of the Columbia University Institute of War and Peace, and special advisor on terrorism to 20 governments. Bowyer “I just wish I could be there” Bell has been working on a regional warfare scenario for East Africa for several years, in coordination with the profiling work done by the special East African behavior modification project run by Gottfried O’Lang, head of the Institute for Behavioral Science and head of the African department at the University of Denver.

It is not therefore surprising that Senator Jacob Javits was able to outline all the key features of the East African terrorism and counter-terrorism scheme at a Conference on International Terrorism, sponsored by the Ralph Bunche Institute of the City University of New York, on June 9-11, well before the events themselves.

As in the “War of the Pacific” scenario for armed clashes between Peru, Bolivia, and Chile, triggered by border incidents playing on Bolivia’s fear of being cut off from access to the sea, the Bowyer Bell-Gottfried O’Lang team has profiled Ethiopia’s and Uganda’s sea-access concerns and is currently manipulating these fears, using border incidents, the hijacking incident, and, in Ethiopia’s case, the coming independence of the tiny French colony at Djibouti to create two interlocking regional wars: one involving Uganda-Kenya and Tanzania, and another involving Ethiopia-Djibouti and Somali.

According to Bowyer Bell, the close relations between Libya and Uganda, and between Iraq and Somali, can then be used to implicate Libya, Iraq, and possibly even Algeria, through the use of staged hijacking incidents under Institute for Policy Studies’ control. “Countries which harbor or otherwise aid terrorists must be targets of international sanctions,” declared Javits. “Very lethal measures are needed, especially against such irresponsible nations as Libya...If it requires an air drop to get terrorists taking refuge, then there will be an airdrop and Libya will go down the drain in the process...I realize my words are dripping with blood.” Javits thus sought to legitimize the use of Rockefeller’s outlaw governments: South Africa, Rhodesia, Israel, Iran, etc., for counter terrorism against the vanguard of the developing countries.

SCRIPTS FOR CONFLICT

Similarly, a recent coup attempt and revolt against

President Nimeri of Sudan is now being used to accuse Libya of staging a full military invasion of the Sudan through some of the most remote, roadless desert in the world — itself an unbelievable engineering feat — setting Libya up for Javit’s promised international sanctions.

The Uganda hijacking itself, with complicity between the Israelis and the Kenyan government in staging the commando raid, was used as an appropriate screen for escalating border tensions between Kenya and Uganda. Weeks earlier Kenya had cut off the shipment of supplies through its ports to landlocked Uganda. Simultaneously, Henry Kissinger ordered a cutoff of all World Bank aid to densely populated Uganda, thus putting the economy under siege. When a Ugandan coup attempt led to rumors of mass killings in reprisal, including murders of Kenyans, a band of Kenyan troops crossed into Uganda June 30 and attacked and destroyed a Ugandan police station.

While the Kenyan government immediately issued a denial that the Kenyans involved were members of the Kenyan armed forces, Kenya’s cooperation with Israel in staging the commando air invasion immediately followed.

Both countries are now under full military alert, with rumors periodically circulating that Uganda has acquired Libyan Mirage jets with which it intends to attack Kenya, or alternately, that Israeli or American planes are heading from Kenya to Uganda and must be shot down. Tensions have also increased between Tanzania and Kenya after Kenya expelled 391 Tanzanians only one month after the two countries signed a special pact of cooperation and tranquility.

The Tanzanian Daily News has noted that the CIA is using every means and medium possible to fan these tensions, using Kenya to split up the East African Community (Kenya, Tanzania, and Uganda). Capitalism in Kenya “has turned the country into a nation of scared people,” thus giving the CIA more room to maneuver, wrote that newspaper in mid-May.

The options available to Henry Kissinger are several. Somali does not immediately come to the defense of Uganda against Kenya, leading to a Uganda-Somali war against Kenya-Ethiopia, Ethiopia and Somali can be manipulated into their own war over Djibouti, a tiny railroad seaport town on the Red Sea inhabited mainly by Somali-speaking peoples.

According to Council on Foreign Relations Africa expert Tom Farer, who specializes in manipulating the fears of the Ethiopian government, the issue of French protectorate Djibouti’s upcoming referendum on whether to federate with Somali will almost certainly trigger an Ethiopian Somali war. If Djibouti votes yes, Ethiopia would perceive the loss of its capitol’s sole rail and harbor outlet and its sudden “landlocked” status as a strategic threat and invade the area. But, continued Farer, if Djibouti votes against federation with Somalia, or if the French rig the election to that effect, there will be terrorism against the Ethiopian railroad by Djibouti “independence fighters” with Somali backing, also provoking an Ethiopian invasion. By either route the resulting conflict will rapidly evolve into a “proxy war” between the U.S. and the Soviet Union.

Phase II: War Scenarios for Southern Africa

Two, three, many Lebanons is the confirmed policy of Nelson Rockefeller and Henry Kissinger for southern Africa. A ranking "African affairs" specialist with known close ties to covert operations run by Secretary of State Kissinger has identified the month of August as the time period for eruption of Rand Corporation "Thirty Years War" scenarios in Africa's southern cone. John Marcum, who is associated with both Nelson Rockefeller's "Critical Choices Commission" and the Institute for Policy Studies, said in an interview this week that Rockefeller-Kissinger deployments for border wars and racial violence, already well underway, should produce "a kind of Mideast sort of thing, but done in Africa rather than in the Mideast...."

In August, Henry Kissinger will meet and conspire with former Nazi-terrorist J. Vorster, South African Prime Minister for the second time this summer. The first such meeting late last month was preceded by the "Soweto riots" in South Africa and the worst police atrocities against blacks in the history of that modern outlaw nation. Those "riots" were directly instigated by organizations of "Black South African revolutionaries" founded in Washington, D.C. at the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS).

As bloody as these atrocities were reported to be, they will seem but mild foreplay following the onslaught against the African people which Kissinger will activate during the immediate period of his second consultation with this killer Vorster. U.S. Labor Party counter-intelligence during the week through a variety of sources associated with the State Department, the Institute for Policy Studies, and related "invisible government" networks has produced the following picture of a multi-faceted summer operation to block debt moratoria by drowning the nations of Africa's southern cone in blood.

Within South Africa

In South Africa itself, clandestine CIA-type sabotage and terrorism organized as "national liberation" by the Institute for Policy Studies will be renewed, provoking the most brutal, prearranged fascist repression from the outlaw Vorster regime. In this manner, Kissinger and Vorster will wholly transform the South African economy with the speed permitted by "emergencies," establishing a national Kruppwerke concentration camp system under their evil "Bantustan" policy.

The Bantustans or "Black National Homelands" are crowded, disease-ridden tribal hell-holes where "labor-intensive agriculture" is currently practiced at such primitive levels that early starvation is the certain fate of those inhabitants who escape death by plague or sheer exhaustion from overwork. The Vorster regime, guided by Lower Manhattan financial institutions, will use the cover of this summer's renewed, bloody terrorism-repression scenario to ship millions of black unemployed out of South Africa's major urban centers to their deaths in these "homelands."

Sources close to the State Department have indicated that the public side of the Kissinger-Vorster meetings in August will consist of announcements of "concessions" to the black African peoples as diversionary action for the Bantustan genocide. These will include a "constitutional settlement" of the Namibia (Southwest Africa) independence issue involving a CIA-puppet state inclusive of controlled factions of the Southwest African Peoples Organization (SWAPO), and will politically facilitate a massive new influx of Rockefeller and other U.S. bank credit and investment capital for the Bantustan death-camp system.

Rhodesia: "Operation Tar Baby"

Comparable atrocities are immediately on the drawing boards for Rhodesia. At the NATO chiefs of staff meeting in Oslo in early April, Henry Kissinger mooted his intention to also impose a "constitutional settlement" of the Zimbabwe guerrilla war and "black majority rule" issues there, enforcing it with a military occupation by American and NATO regular army troops. The intended result will be rage throughout all black Africa, and the United States as well.

The precise scenario, nicknamed the "tar-baby option" by Anthony Lake of the Institute for Policy Studies, is described by John Marcum as designed to "put the U.S. in a position analogous to Angola...in a position of trying to keep the Zimbabwe military forces from taking power, while the latter are supported by the Soviets, the Cubans and the Chinese (sic)...It'll be a real prickly pear."

Anthony Lake, a close friend of Noam Chomsky and a special advisor to Kissinger during his tenure as National Security Advisor to the President, recently gave a briefing on the "tar-baby" option to a closely guarded meeting of top Institute for Policy Studies officials in Washington, reportedly emphasizing that Kissinger's military defense of Rhodesia will not only detonate Africa like so much TNT, but topple the U.S. Ford administration.

In his recently published book, The Tar-Baby Option, American Policy in Rhodesia, Lake gives details. Institute for Policy Studies countergangs and agent-provocateurs — under U.S. Justice Department "field marshals" — will seize upon "the administration's tilt toward apartheid" to organize race riots in major American cities and "anti-racist" political terrorism. Through its "American Committee on Africa" under known CIA agent Rev. George Houser, controller of Holden Roberto and the FNLA, its "Washington Office on Africa" and similar front groups, the Institute will simultaneously attempt to capture, and misdirect the President, the immense black, liberal and labor discontent over this new Vietnam, ruining Gerald Ford's chances in the November elections.

As in their earlier mobilization of "opposition" to Kissinger's Angola war, the Institute's "liberal" network will conduct their entire "defense of African liberation struggles" in close consultation with Henry Kissinger himself.

Thirty Years War in the South

All other nations in the southern cone will be swept into the "Thirty Years War" manifold principally defined by Kissinger's Southern Africa and Rhodesia atrocities. "There is a damned good chance that Kenneth Kaunda is going to come unstuck shortly," Rhodesian Defense Minister Van der Byl told Western newsmen with an air of certainty recently. "Then, you will get a Marxist regime in Zambia," he continued. "then, will follow Zaire, which is not all that strong."

In Zambia, President Kaunda, under massive popular pressures for backing "the wrong side" in Angola, has recently undertaken a "left" pro-development turn, and been immediately subjected to terrorist bombings by Rhodesian commandos. The alleged "Marxist coup" threat assayed by the Rhodesian Defense Minister is to serve as pretext for a bloody racial "border war" between Rhodesia and Zambia.

In Zaire, Henry Kissinger favors the option of a "coup" to eliminate his worn-out puppet, President Mobutu Sese Seku. "He's terribly unbalanced and so much depends on one man," declared intelligence-insider John Marcum. "I fear a chain reaction, a rekindling of the old Congo 1960 situation in which Zaire would become an international flashpoint." The result of Mobutu's fall will be "ungovernability" in which the "Christian Falange"-type fascists of the Movement for the Resurrection of the Congo will be pitted against Antoine Gizenga's pro-Soviet guerilla movement in a civil war which will slaughter tens of thousands.

Marcum identified a chaotic civil war situation as the future of pro-socialist Mozambique, too. The trigger is to be an assassination of President Samora Machel. "There would be an intense faction fight with all kinds of international backing," said Marcum, himself a well-practiced covert operations scenario-writer. "It would be just like Lebanon."
