

2. The Battle Over Terror In Europe

Aug. 1: Christian Democratic Minister President Albrecht of Lower Saxony announced he is in possession of a terrorist hit list which he will not make available to the authorities.

— Muenchner Merkur, newspaper of Bavarian neo-Nazi Franz Josef Strauss predicted Arab terrorism all over Europe.

— Bayern Kurier, similarly controlled by Strauss, alleged Chancellor Helmut Schmidt has a Nazi past.

Aug. 7: Hans Filbinger, Minister President of the state of Baden-Wurttemberg, was forced to resign for alleged past Nazi activity. Filbinger is one of the most outspoken supporters of Schmidt's economic policies in the German Christian Democracy.

— Der Spiegel interviewed Joaquim Klein, cofounder of the Baader-Meinhoff terror gang, who is in hiding at an undisclosed location. The article attempted to whitewash Klein who is portrayed as a "reformed" terrorist. Klein was subsequently exposed as a continuing Israeli terror operative.

Aug. 10: Franz Josef Strauss and others in his Christian Social Union party (Voss, Zimmerman) called a parliamentary question on the constitutionality of aspects of the Bremen summit economic program in West Germany.

Aug. 11: The Soviet military daily Red Star reviewed "Black Orchestra," a book recently published in Paris, which discusses the role of Western intelligence services in neofascist activities.

The spiritual closeness of neofascism and Zionism is noted in the book. The militarism of Israel and its brazen expansionist policy in particular command the respect of the neofascists, writes the author. In "the spiritual arsenal" of neo-Nazism there is a place for the ideas of the "Great Helmsman" (Mao Tse-tung — ed.).

Aug. 15: Guido Giannettini, Italian intelligence agent linked to Premier Andreotti of Italy, held a press conference after being allowed to return to Italy from exile. In 1974 key agent Giannettini had authored the "Dossier San Marco" (subsequently published in translation by the Executive Intelligence Review) which detailed the Israeli control, through the Mossad, of European terrorism and its links to Kissinger and the Watergate scandal.

Aug. 16: Christian Science Monitor correspondent Paul Wohl cited articles from the important Soviet weekly publications Nedelya, the Sunday supplement of Izvestia, and Ogonyok, reported to be an "unprecedented offensive against 'Jewish controlled

The Press Battle . . .

Last week the press was one of the most important battlegrounds in the fight over international terror. Here, several of the key articles:

London: Terror Is Soviets' "Covert War"

London Times, "The Intelligence War: Moscow Plan to Sabotage West," by Robert Moss (known to be directly tied to British intelligence), Aug. 21:

...A number of Soviet bloc defectors have testified that the secret departments of the KGB and the GRU (Soviet military intelligence) responsible for sabotage have detailed plans to orchestrate strike action, demonstrations, and physical destruction in a period of tension, short of armed conflict, to paralyze West European countries.

...But the most dramatic insights into Soviet plans for industrial sabotage came from Oleg Lyalin, the man who defected to Britain in 1971, bringing with him the darkest secrets of the KGB's Department V.

...Lyalin told his British debriefers in great detail about the KGB's preparations for the sabotage of vital services, industrial centres, communications and computer facilities.

The Soviet interest in sabotage reveals a willingness to use terrorist methods to bring about the triumph of world "socialism" — and therefore casts doubts on Moscow's denials of any involvement with international terrorist groups that are currently active.

Western governments have a duty to make as much public as can be disclosed without compromising intelligence methods or sources.

The facts give the lie to those who persist in making out that any attempt to describe the reality of the Soviet threat is an effort to revive the "Cold War."

Covert warfare is being waged against the West by the KGB day by day, inside our borders...

"Moro Case Was Not a Simple Case of Terrorism"

Il Giorno (Italian daily), interview with Flaminio Piccoli, the new president of the ruling Christian Democratic (DC) Party, Aug. 22:

The pact (between the DC and Italian Communist Party, PCI — ed.) we are initiating now originated out of the national and international situation of crisis. Think of the fluctuations of the international currencies, which are indications of capitalism' and 'Zionist terror'. As reported by the Monitor, the articles published a study dealing "with an alleged Jewish stranglehold over the world's multi-billion weapons trade, 'the most Zionist of businesses which pays the dividends of blood collected by the cosmopolites of the lord of hosts.'" The articles also "deal particularly with (Lazard Freres)... 'one of the world's principal financial empires, founded and controlled by Jewish bankers, Kuhn Loeb, the Rothschilds, etc.... Tell me who your banker is and I shall tell you who you are...'"

Aug. 17: Italian General Carlo Alberto Dalla Chiesa interviewed by the French daily l'Aurore cited terrorist Joachim Klein as being under control of the Israeli Mossad intelligence organization.

Aug. 18: Italian Socialist Party General Secretary Craxi authored an editorial in Avanti, the party paper, denying that Klein is an Israeli agent and charging that he is instead under the control of the East bloc.

Aug. 18: The Italian daily Il Giornale independently corroborated Dalla Chiesa's charge about Klein and his Mossad employers.

Aug. 19: The Soviet journal Sotsialisticheskaya Industriya, in an article titled "The Zionists Are the Gun Runners," said that the same capital that created Zionism today runs two-thirds of the international illegal gun traffic; international Zionism does not want a settlement to the Mideast crisis.

Aug. 21: Spiegel magazine reveals a coming wave of anti-German terrorism from Croatian, Baader-Meinhof, and other terrorist networks.

Aug. 21: Der Spiegel, together with Die Welt and others, covered the meeting of Cohn-Bendit, Rudi Dutschke, and others in the Social Democratic (SPD) machine of West Germany to "refound the SPD" through collaboration between terrorist and environmental circles.

Aug. 22: Italian magistrate Galluci announced an upcoming trip to Cairo to follow the tracks of exposed Israeli terrorist Joachim Klein.

Aug. 22: L'Unita, official daily of the Italian Communist Party, charged that London appears to function as an international center of terrorism.

Aug. 23: Two days after the appearance of Robert Moss's column in the London Times attempting to divert investigations into terrorist control to the East bloc (see box), the Italian Il Messaggero published an article attacking top DC foreign affairs advisor Granelli for refusing to admit in an earlier interview that terrorism does indeed originate from the socialist countries. Instead Messaggero counterposes Socialist Party secretary Bettino Craxi to Granelli, championing Craxi for being the only one who openly points to Czechoslovakia and other socialist countries as the terrorist deployers.

... Three Examples

economic and political contrasts... We must learn from the lessons of the Weimar Republic.... The attitude of the PCI has contributed a lot to the democratic order... and in particular in connection with the response we must give to the armed party (terrorists).... We are on the road of violence, of local wars and of terrorism. This is not the beginning, but is the climate of a world conflict.

(Asked about the attacks to which he has been subjected by some members of the press for "knowing and not saying" what he knows about the networks involved in the murder of ex-Premier Aldo Moro, Piccoli responds:)

The Moro case was not a simple case of terrorism. In him they wanted to strike at the autonomous Italian policy... I feel that the truth will come out, and think that (Christian Democrat General Secretary) Zaccagnini was very right to impose on the DC the effort to reach the truth at all costs.

"Terrorism: The Respite Is Over"

Der Spiegel, lead article, Aug. 21:

After the attack on the Consulate General in Chicago, Bonn fears an escalation of violence on German territory. The signs are mounting that terrorists are becoming active once again. This could stymie Federal Chancellor Schmidt's idea of influencing the state elections in Hesse and Bavaria through concrete initiatives....

Nothing's over yet. On the contrary, much points to the assumption that the respite since the Schleyer kidnapping is coming to an end. For quite a while there have been an increasing number of signs that Red Army Fraction anarchists are planning new actions in the Federal Republic.... New kidnappings are considered just as probable as ambush murders or well-aimed bullets destined for prominent politicians, top officials or influential economic leaders....

(Schmidt's) plan for September is to begin an environmental protection offensive against the "greenies," and to have the government give a glowing report about itself during the budget debate, in order to warm up the memory of Schmidt's successful summer diplomacy and his tax relief decisions.

But the hostage-taking in Chicago has shown the people in Bonn once again how little their political calculations are worth when terrorists strike.
