Karroubi had just been appointed by Khomeini the "commander-in-chief" of this year's pilgrimage.

Moscow and Iran's war plans

Syria's July 29 decision to send some 50 Soviet-made T-62 tanks to the Shi'ite Amal militia in Beirut, gross violation of the June agreement which ended the so-called "war of the camps," to be handed over to the Lebanese army, Damascus wants to deliver a final blow to the Palestinians in Lebanon.

The decision came less than 24 hours after the signing in Beirut of a new "political alliance" between Shi'ite leader Nabih Berri and Druze chieftain Walid Jumblatt. Laying basis for such a pact were three days of consultations in Damascus with Vice-President Abdel Halim Khaddam, strenghten the "anti-Arafat front in Lebanon,"

The danger of this genocidal operation was first identified by PLO Chairman Arafat in an explosive interview on July 19 broadcast by Radio Cairo.

itly identified Syria as harboring "a major plot against the Palestinian cause and against the Arab nation as a whole.

The aim of the plot was,

Palestinians from Lebanon in accordance with what Sharon said when he entered Lebanon. Nabih Berri is only the Trojan Horse used in the implementation of the plot."

The all-out assault being readied against the Palestinians in Lebanon is part of a final solution to the Palestinian problem that has been worked out in secret discussions between the Syrians and Israelis, under the sponsorship of the Soviet Union, whose deal with the Ariel Sharon faction in Israel has now surfaced publicly with the news that the Soviets and Israelis are getting set to reestablish diplomatic relations. Once the Palestinian problem is "eliminated," which all sides agree is best accomplished through a holocaust, then a redivision of the Middle East will occur.

A new massacre of Arafat's followers in Lebanon is to be coupled with Syrian-sponsored kamikaze operations by the Nazi National Socialist Syrian Party against Israeli soldiers in southern Lebanon. These, by pre-arrangement, will be used by Israeli hawks as a pretext to go after Jordan! The point has been underlined by July 29 and July 30 declarations by former Israeli Defense Minister Ariel Sharon, Foreign Minister Yitzhak Shamir, and Defense Minister Yitzhak Rabin, who announced that terrorist actions against Israel in Lebanon were organized by Arafat's PLO!

The Feb. 11 Arafat/Hussein agreement, merging Palestinian and Jordanian representatives for peace talks with Israel, was denounced in the Knesset by Rabin as a "terrorist pact." "We should strike at PLO bases in Jordan," announced Sharon. Such lying signals a reactivation of the secret agreement between Sharon and Assad to partition Lebanon and absorb Jordan.

In his July 19 interview, Arafat also warned of "plots aimed at partitioning Lebanon on a sectarian basis and Balkanizing the region." The main feature of such an arrangement will be to drive the U.S. out of the Mideast and to destroy all pro-Western nations, such as Egypt, Jordan, and Saudi Arabia.

Prior to Arafat's warning it is known that the Syrian-backed Amal had already received the go-ahead for these operations from a representative of the Israeli secret service, the Mossad. In a meeting between a Mossad operative, and Amal leader Daoud Daoud, held before the TWA hijacking, the Israelis guaranteed the Amal the right to Southern Lebanon, if they wiped out the Palestinians.

Arafat's warnings took place amid consistent attacks by the Amal launched against Palestinian refugee camps in Beirut and throughout Lebanon. At that time, the Amal and the Lebanese Army's 6th Brigade were shelling all parts of the Burj al-Barajinah camp in the southern suburbs of Beirut, the Al-Baddawi camp near Tripoli in north Lebanon, and the Al-Buss camp near Sidon in southern Lebanon.

All this, however, may be only the tip of the iceberg. Intelligence reports speak of more than 1,000 East German advisers arriving in Libya. That could indicate new fundamentalist operations against Egypt, as well as a new Libyan offensive in Chad.

How Moscow Plays the Muslim Card in the Middle East

In the past year, have you. . .

Suspected that the news media are not presenting an accurate picture of Soviet gains and capabilities in the Middle East?

Wondered how far the Khomeini brand of fundamentalism will spread?

Asked yourself why the United States seems to be making one blunder after another in the Middle East?

If so, you need EIR's new Special Report, "How Moscow Plays the Muslim Card in the Middle East."

This ground-breaking report covers:

- History and Mideast policy of the Pugwash Conferences, whose organization by Bertrand Russell in 1957 involved high-level Soviet participation from the beginning. Pugwash Conferences predicted petroleum crises and foresaw tactical nuclear warfare in the Middle East.
- The Soviet Islam establishment, including Shiite-born Politburo member Geidar Aliyev, the Soviet Orientology and Ethnography think tanks, and the four Muslim Boards of the U.S.S.R.
- Moscow's cooptation of British intelligence networks (including those of the "Muslim Brotherhood"—most prominent member, Ayatollah Khomeini) and parts of Hitler's Middle East networks, expanded after the war.
- The U.S.S.R.'s diplomatic and political gains in the region since 1979. Soviet penetration of Iran as a case study of Moscow's Muslim card. The August 1983 founding of the Teheran-based terrorist "Islamintern," which showed its hand in the Oct. 23 Beirut bombings.
