

Arnulfo Arias: Nazi

According to the book Holocaust in Panama by Aristides Iván Hassan R., Arnulfo Arias was responsible for directing the mass executions of 13 German Jewish families in Panama, where Arias now owns what is said to be a coffee plantation. The death squad that carried out the executions during Arias's short, violent wartime presidency in 1940-41, was trained by a Guatemalan protégé of Hitler's ambassador to Panama, Hans von Winter, who set up a political police called GUSIPA. Its chief was Nicolás Ardito Barletta, father of ex-President "Nicky" Barletta.

In 1937, Arnulfo Arias personally met Hitler, when he was ambassador to Italy. It was there he was formally recruited to Nazism, and, sources say, it was during that time the plot to murder Panama's German Jews was hatched.

Arias, who first became fascinated with Gnostic cult activity in 1925, when he became involved with the racist society "Los Polares" in France, has a long history as a "race scientist" beginning with his education at the University of Chicago and Harvard Medical School.

- In 1930, Arias was a member of Acción Comunal, an occult secret society that carried out a coup d'état in 1931, and installed his brother Harmodio Arias as President.

- In 1933, during his brother's presidency, the same year Hitler's mass sterilization programs were launched, Health Minister Arias proposed a program to sterilize blacks and "mercy-kill" the elderly. The program was rejected by the congress, but in 1941 during his presidency, all blacks admitted to the hospital were forcibly sterilized.

- Arias himself became President in 1940. In his Oct. 1 inaugural address, he proclaimed that "as Panama has ceded its territory to the United States to construct the Canal, Panama also can cede territory to the Germany of Adolf Hitler, so they . . . can help us against Imperialism. . . . The demagogic concept that all men are free and equal is biologically without foundation. . . . The concept of liberty as an inalienable and unlimited right of the individual must give way to the more modern concept of liberty conditioned by the social exigencies of the community."

Before he was overthrown by a U.S.-backed coup in 1941, Arias was able to impose a new constitution prohibiting immigration of blacks, Chinese, and Japanese. He revoked the citizenship of 40,000 West Indian blacks, and even asked the United States to return to the West Indies blacks who had worked on the canal.

now into a period of the deepest crises of this century to date, a crisis so profound that it were possible the United States, as we have known it up to now, might not survive the events unfolding over the course of the 1990s.

What a contemptible little Elliott Abrams, or even a George Bush thinks or does, is of trivial importance at this juncture. Powerful forces, which such weak-brained fellows never imagined to exist, are about to take over the stage. We are entering now a time when only the most profound insight into principles of classical tragedy provides convenient and useful comparisons for the titanic developments about to sweep over the entirety of this planet.

The important thing is to know the real enemy forces, for whom a mere wretch such as Abrams serves as a readily expendable pawn.

What is today's neo-Nazism?

The ugly secret of this age is the rise of power of what is symptomized by the term: SYNARCHISM: NAZI/COMMUNIST. The first thing to do, to understand the forces at play in the emerging upheavals around this planet, is to find the common denominator of Nazism and Communism, the common father and master of both, who is also the true master of the unwitting Elliott Abrams's mouth, hands, and feet.

As Nazi historian Dr. Armin Mohler documents in his The Conservative Revolution in Germany, 1918-1932, the Thule Society which created Hitler's Nazis, never intended Nazism to survive as more than an instrument of widespread destruction, preparing the way for a later form of what is usually referenced today as "neo-conservatism"—today's fashionable way of professing to be a fascist. The Gnostic cults, including their overtly satanist, Crowleyite theosophical offshoots, as well as Synarchist networks, are the chief vehicle through which that transition to the new form of fascism is being pushed.

These Gnostic ideologues, backed by powerful rentier-
