

of the hearings. He was the youngest person ever elected to the Pennsylvania state legislature, and, during 24 years of distinguished public service, was a national leader, and one of the pioneers, in the battle against Operation Fröhmenschen. He was 47 years old at the time of his death.

Testimony on Operation Fröhmenschen was presented by former office-holders Sen. Theo Walker Mitchell, Sen. Herb Fielding, Judge Tee Ferguson, and Rep. Frank McBride, all of South Carolina; former Judge Ira Murphy of Tennessee; and Councilman Roosevelt Bell of Alabama, and Patricia Moore and attorney Ollie Manago, of California.

Testimony on the OSI was presented by Yoram Sheftel of Tel Aviv, Israel, who represented Demjanjuk in his death penalty trial before the Israeli Supreme Court; Dr. Hans Koehler, of the International Progress Organization, Vienna, Austria; and William Nezowy, of the American Ukrainian Political Action Council of the United States.

Testimony on the LaRouche case was presented by Odin Anderson of Boston, who has served as Mr. LaRouche's attorney for over a decade; Lyndon LaRouche; Helga Zepp-LaRouche; and finally, wrapping up two days of startling testimony, former U.S. Attorney General Ramsey Clark.

In case after case, decisive evidence of rampant DOJ corruption, prosecutorial misconduct, withholding of exculpatory evidence, and conscious perjury and fraud upon the court, politically motivated and designed to deprive the American citizen of effective representation, was presented, not by the good word of the witnesses, but by government documents, records, and memoranda, first suppressed and later obtained under the Freedom of Information Act and other legal actions.

At the close of testimony, the panel, under the joint chairmanship of Mann and J.L. Chestnut, ruled that no summary statement could capture the shocking and dramatic nature of the testimony itself. By unanimous decision, the panel is now preparing a series of written and video-taped presentations of the proceedings that will be produced for international circulation, as well as submission to every member of the U.S. Congress. One by one, the panelists expressed their confidence, given that the nature of the evidence they had compiled was so compelling and so indicting, that congressional oversight hearings into the matter, as well as other governmental action, would soon be forthcoming. "Justice," stated Mann, "must finally be returned to the Department of Justice."

LaRouche scores DOJ 'hit squads'

In his weekly "EIR Talks" radio interview on Sept. 7, Lyndon LaRouche delivered a damning indictment of the corrupt DOJ and FBI apparatus, branding it as the Establishment's "Murder, Inc." Asked to comment on the just-concluded extraordinary hearings, LaRouche said:

"There's a group, inside the Criminal Division of the Justice Department, centered around people like Mark Richard and Jack Keeney, who represent the equivalent of an organized-crime Murder, Inc. hit squad. They've gone after a number of cases that various Establishment figures have wanted run, like hired hit men.

"That is—there's no direct connection, say, between Demjanjuk and Waldheim, the operation against me and my friends, the operation to eliminate all leading black politicians who are not just toadies for the FBI. . . . But in each case, some part of the Establishment has wanted the operation run. A couple of times, Henry Kissinger has been the author of this kind of thing. And the Criminal Division of the Justice Department, with certain ancillaries, runs a dirty operation, like a hit squad operation: 'Get this guy, get that guy.' And until we get that crowd out of the Justice Department, which so far [Attorney General] Janet Reno has been loath to cough up, particularly out of the Criminal Division, there is no justice possible for anyone, in the United States. That's the issue."

LaRouche added both the Waco and Randy Weaver cases to the growing list of instances where elements within the DOJ and FBI operated as a Murder, Inc. apparatus.

"Randy Weaver was a victim of that apparatus. . . . The Waco case was set up by, again, a group in the Southern Jurisdiction of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, with the help of the Cult Awareness Network, including agents based from Australia. It was a complete fraud from the beginning, and they set up a situation because this group was designated to be hit. . . .

"And in the middle of this, Janet Reno arrives on the scene, and this bunch of con men, convinces her, by playing her string in some way, to endorse an operation which is plainly outright murder. So, when those kinds of things can go on in this country, like the Weaver case, and the other cases, the obvious thing to say is not: 'What was the error made, case-by-case?' There was no honest error in any of these cases; they were all assassination jobs. And what's called an error is an attempt at a coverup, before the Congress, and before other institutions. And therefore it's important to get this 'hit squad,' this assassination bureau, headed by thugs like Mark Richard, and Jack Keeney, cleaned out of the Justice Department. And clean up the FBI, too, so we can have justice, and reasonable, trustworthy law enforcement once again here in the United States."
