

ment in politics, then proceeded to instruct the government that it must take action against Thaksin immediately!

Revanchism

Another aspect of the current crisis arose during the royalist yellow shirt occupation of Government House and the International Airport, when part of the mob moved to the Cambodian border, rallying revanchist hysteria in Thailand for a war with Cambodia over a contested temple and a piece of land. One of the leaders of this madness, Kasit Piromya, who had enthusiastically addressed the fascist mob during its occupation of the airport, was appointed foreign minister when Abhisit was placed in power. Several military incidents have taken place on the border, with deaths to soldiers on both sides, since Abhisit and Kasit took power in Bangkok. The Thai government also accused Cambodia of harboring Thaksin in exile, which the Cambodian government vehemently denies.

Thaksin, in fact, had made a central tenet of his regime that Thailand would aid its poorer neighbors—Cambodia, Laos, and Myanmar—while fully respecting their sovereignty.

Thailand is the hub geographically in relations among India, China, and Southeast Asia. Once infamous as the center of the Golden Triangle, which produced the majority of the world's opium, drug production has now been largely eliminated, both in Thailand and, with Thailand's help, in Myanmar and Laos. The British Empire, whose Opium Wars against China and all of Asia in the 19th Century imposed drug production and consumption upon the Asian people with British gunboats, is alive and well, and coming to Thailand next week to celebrate its assumed victory—unless the Thai people decide otherwise.

British Target Obama in Drug-Legalization Bash

The International Harm Reduction Association (IHRA) plans to hold its 20th Annual Conference in Thailand from April 20-23. Harm reduction is the newspeak term used by the British Empire and its primary hitman George Soros, for legalization of drugs. While the IHRA is planning to celebrate what they consider a consolidation of power over Thailand, the international scope of the conference is exposed by the title of the keynote speech, given by Ethan Nadelmann, head of Soros's Drug Policy Alliance: "Barack Obama on Drugs: Don't Give Up on the U.S.A." Obama's refusal, thus far, to capitulate to the Soros-controlled drug lobby, has infuriated the Soros crowd, which is intent on breaking his resistance.

Founded in the U.K. in 1990, the IHRA works closely with the Soros apparatus, which is providing dozens of the more than 500 speakers for this massive event. The IHRA displays its behavioral fascist roots in the titles to some of the panels, among them:

"Harm Reduction and Pleasure Maximization, presented by the International Network of People Who Use Drugs (this is the organization that was given a seat by the British delegation to the recent Vienna UN drug conference, and was allowed to speak there).

"Cruel and Inhuman Treatment: Suffering Drug Withdrawal and Rights Violations in Detention.

"Building Networks of Drug Users.

"Chaos and Control—Pharmacotherapy in Victoria, Australia.

"Compulsory Drug Dependence Treatment Centers—Costs, Rights and Evidence. This targets "cold turkey" policies in Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam, and Malaysia, as an attack on human rights, by the Open Society Institute, run by George Soros.

"Peer Education and Safer Injecting Practices in Street-Based Sex Workers.

"Towards a Rights-Based Approach—Young People, Drugs, and the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (presented by Youth RISE, a "youth-led harm reduction network" to overcome "barriers to services, such as parental consent").

"Can Harm Reduction End the Drug War?"

—Michael Billington