

The Crime Behind the Crime

There were two crimes committed on Jan. 8, when lunatic Jared Loughner carried out his mass killing in Tucson, Ariz. The most obvious one was the murder of at least six citizens, and malicious wounding of a dozen others, including Congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords. That was an atrocity, carried out by an obviously deranged individual, for reasons that deserve considerably further investigation.

The second crime was the widespread fraud perpetrated by much of the media, which attempted to blame the violent act on those who have dared to tell the truth about the Hitlerian nature of President Obama's so-called health-care policy. The immediate jump to blaming former Republican Vice Presidential candidate Sarah Palin for her truthful attacks on the "death panel"-ridden health bill, among others, gives away an equally evil, or worse, agenda: that of suppressing any dissent from the agenda of Hitlerian euthanasia which the Obama Administration, under guidance from Tony Blair's British policy, is determined to carry out.

"How can anyone be criticized for opposing outright crimes against humanity, modeled on Hitler's own T4 program?" asked Lyndon LaRouche in a statement issued Jan. 10. "This is the media fraud to which I am referring. The New York Times, the Fabian Society's London Guardian, and others, propose that it is a crime to attack those perpetrating a revival of the very Nuremberg crimes that led the Nazi doctors to the gallows after World War II.

"This is the mentality inside the U.S. government today, including inside the U.S. Congress," LaRouche continued. "They show a zeal to commit the crimes of Hitler, because it is so important to save money for the continued bailout of London and Wall Street, that people must die, needlessly."

LaRouche concluded: "I am struck by the speed with which the usual corrupt media outlets here and in Britain launched their coordinated campaign against Palin and other critics of President Obama's Nazi-modeled policies. It is as if they were waiting for precisely such a heinous incident to occur, to attack those criticizing the attempted revival of Hitlerian euthanasia. I wish I could say that I am shocked at this disgusting behavior, but I am not. The J.P. Morgan-backed New York Times and the Fabian Society-linked Guardian have a long track record of support for such outright genocidal policies. The Guardian was the chief booster of Tony Blair, when he was Prime Minister, and pushed through his NICE program of premeditated targeted denial of life-saving medical care, for purely austerity reasons. These were Nuremberg crimes between 1939 and 1945, and they are still Nuremberg crimes today."

We in the LaRouche movement have, of course, been in the forefront of telling the truth about the Hitlerian nature of Obama's health policy. Even those who agree with us—and there are an increasing number—have urged us to "tone down the rhetoric." Their "advice" is the equivalent of telling us to abandon the truth.

This we will not do. The only hope of stopping the victory of fascism over these United States, and thus the world, lies in a ruthless commitment to telling the truth, including that the President's health policy is a virtual carbon copy of Hitler's policy to eliminate "useless eaters." Those who refuse to tell that truth, and to fight it, are aiding and abetting genocide, just as much as the "silent" Germans did under Hitler.
