

Greetings from the Chinese Consul General in New York

Congratulatory Message

I would like to extend my congratulations on the 30th anniversary of the Schiller Institute and the launching of the program on “One Road and One Belt New Thinking with Regard to Concepts and Practice.”

The Schiller Institute is a world-renowned political and economic think tank. Over the past 30 years since its founding, it has promoted mutual understanding between different cultures. I applaud your efforts and hope that you will continue your inspiring work in the future.

The Silk Road Economic Belt and the 21st Century Maritime Silk Road initiatives will help countries put aside their disputes in the political and security fields, focusing on working with each other in their pursuit of economic development. Thus the initiatives will foster mutual trust among countries, which will consequently promote the security cooperation across Asia.

I have no doubt that the panel discussion to be held at the Schiller Institute will enhance the awareness and understanding of the “One Road and One Belt” initiatives. I wish the Schiller Institute even more success in the coming years and we look forward to many more opportunities for cooperation in the future.

Ambassador Sun Guoxiang
Consul General of the People's Republic of China
