EIR

From the Editors

On the same day that global terrorism attacked in Europe Jan. 7, EIR and the LaRouchePAC unleashed a revolutionary capability which can utterly defeat that terrorism and destroy its sponsors.

This superweapon against global terrorism is not new police-state legislation in the style of Cheney, Bush, and Obama. It was, first, the Jan. 7 indictment from the highest Congressional level, featuring Joint Congressional Inquiry into 9/11 co-chairman, former Sen. Bob Graham, of the leading role of the Saudi monarchy in all global terrorism (Feature). Then, in the Jan. 9 webcast, EIR Counterintelligence Editor Jeffrey Steinberg's authoritative exposure in detail of the British/Saudi deployment of all global terror networks.

And then, the powerful demonstration of a spirit of national unity and solidarity in one European country—the immense French demonstrations of Jan. 11—among the many European countries which have lost their sovereignty to British governments of Margaret Thatcher, Tony Blair, and the repulsive royal family.

This “superweapon” is now in your hands—in the form of this issue of EIR. Helga Zepp-LaRouche introduces the issue, analyzing the strategic potential of the events. Then we provide transcripts of the historic Capitol Hill press conference, and the supplemental remarks on the British/Saudi terror apparatus, given by Steinberg during LaRouchePAC's Jan. 9 webcast. For added depth, we include excerpts from two of the most striking of Lyndon LaRouche's forecasts about the international terror deployment: his Jan. 3, 2001 warning of a U.S. “Reichstag Fire,” and his Sept. 11 radio interview during the horrific events of that day.

The complementary picture of the French mobilization against the terror, featuring the interventions of former Presidential candidate Jacques Cheminade, lead the International section, followed by an update on the war danger which the U.S. press is so loath to publicize.

Our BRICS coverage is done from two angles. First, the progress of the global process of creating a new system, as shown in the recent China-CELAC summit (Economics). Then, an in-depth exposé of how the British “color revolution” faction is trying to destroy South Africa, one of the five BRICS nations (Counterintelligence).

To defeat the British strategy, LaRouche has insisted, Wall Street must be sunk. That is the subject of our National section—with much more to come next week from Manhattan itself.
