

Free the Pope from Satan! Schellnhuber Is a Satanic Figure!

June 21—During the most recent days, John Schellnhuber, a Satanist in the service of the British Royal Family, has in effect declared himself Pope. Schellnhuber was fraudulently inducted overnight into the Pontifical Academy of Sciences, and tasked with explaining to the public the Pope's most recent, "green" encyclical—of which Schellnhuber himself was obviously effectively the author. This John Schellnhuber, who is a Commander of the Order of the British Empire, openly advocates, on behalf of Britain's Satanic Royal Family, that world population must be reduced to only one billion persons. He wants to kill off six out of every seven of us.

That the British Royal Family is purely Satanic, could not be doubted by any of the patriotic Americans who led us against it in the American Revolutionary War. Nor those who led us against Britain's puppets, the Confederate slave-whippers, in our Civil War. It was the British Royal Family which has time after time assassinated our best Presidents. The British Royals repeatedly, deliberately starved the Irish and the Indians to death,—most recently, when Royal puppet Winston Churchill starved at least three million Indians to death during World War II—all the while refusing American offers of food aid to India.

The Royals' eager propensity for mass murder has only increased during the reign of Elizabeth II, whose husband has repeatedly expressed the wish that he be reincarnated as a deadly virus in order to help solve the "population problem." And now Schellnhuber, the new would-be Pope, calls for the death of six billion human beings. A would-be Pope who is one thousand times worse than Hitler, no less.

In fact, the season of mass murder was already far advanced in the world, even before this atrocity in the Vatican. What else could we call the mass-drownings of refugees in the Mediterranean,—refugees from the “R2P” wars of Barack Obama, himself also a British stooge? Not only southeast Ukraine, not only the Middle East, but the United States is being stalked by mass murder as well. Now, the deep corruption now on display in the Christian Papacy, if it is not stopped immediately, likely means the early extinction of the human race itself. Don’t just think of its effect on Christians. Don’t limit yourself to remembering all the mass-slaughters which declared Christians have committed, supposedly in the name of their faith. The horror doesn’t stop there. Think also of the Hell that this Satanic fraud is provoking already, now among non-Christians as well.

Yes, the atrocities of Satanists Hitler and Mussolini are like nothing when compared to the threat of British Monarchical control over the Papacy. If you wait to find out more, you will be dead yourself. Free the Pope from Satan!

Schellnhuber’s Pedigree: Satanic British Empire Agent

June 22—Schiller Institute founder and chairwoman of the German patriotic BüSo party, Helga Zepp-La-Rouche, provided the following synopsis of Hans-Joachim Schellnhuber’s pedigree as a personal agent of the British Royal Family, in her May 2011 call to the German people, “No to Global Gleichschaltung,” which we expand here:

- After having founded the Potsdam Institute on Climate (PIK), Schellnhuber was brought to the United Kingdom in 2002, to assume the post of Research Director at the Tyndall Centre for Climate Change Research in Norwich, a branch of Oxford University’s Tyndall Center. He was also brought on to the Oxford University Physics Department and the Environmental Change Institute.

- In early 2004, Queen Elizabeth II considered Professor Schellnhuber as the best man for a sensitive operation to pressure President George W. Bush into agreeing to the anthropogenic climate-change swindle. Schellnhuber traveled to Washington, D.C. along with Prime Minister Tony Blair’s top science advisor, Sir David King, who is now the British Crown’s Special Representative for Climate Change, appointed by the Foreign and Commonwealth Office in September 2013. The Bush White House reportedly complained to Blair about this mission.

- Also in 2004, the Queen traveled to Berlin to open the German-British Climate Conference, on which occasion she dubbed Professor Schellnhuber a Commander of the Order of the British Empire.

- In 2005, Blair turned to Schellnhuber to organize a conference on “Avoiding Dangerous Climate Change,” at the G8 summit in Gleneagles, Scotland. The proceedings, edited by Schellnhuber, with an introduction by Tony Blair and IPCC head Rajendra Pachauri, were published by Cambridge University Press.

- With Professor Schellnhuber as chairman of the advisory board, the European Climate Foundation (ECF), from 2007 on, generously funded German “climate activists” from the above-named sources, while at the same time, Schellnhuber was working with the EU Commission on guidelines for the reduction of CO2 emissions.

- As German Chancellor Angela Merkel’s current energy advisor, Schellnhuber bears the main responsibility for inducing Merkel to make the climate-change question the top agenda item during Germany’s presidency of the EU in 2007—something which not only wrecked Germany as an industrial nation, but also seriously compromised Merkel’s personal integrity as a scientist.

- In 2009, Schellnhuber, in close collaboration with Prince Charles, coordinated preparations for the UN Copenhagen Climate Conference (COP15). Preparations included another mission to Washington, this time to personally press the Obama administration on the urgency of the monarchy’s global “decarbonization” intent, Obama’s Science Advisor being fanatic depopulation champion John Holdren, a long-time associate and collaborator of Schellnhuber’s. The Copenhagen conference nonetheless failed, after representatives of developing and emerging countries—and the Vatican—realized that the intention behind the climate question was massive population reduction.

- And in 2011, in his capacity as chairman of the German Advisory Council on Global Change (WBGU), Schellnhuber presented a master plan for a “World in Transition: A Social Contract for a Great Transformation,” a proposal for establishing a worldwide eco-fascist order.
