

Judith Rodin Spews Dark Age Propaganda

by Meghan Rouillard,
LaRouche Youth Movement

“If the God of Genesis 1 were actually the Creator of the universe, and man and woman were made in the Creator’s likeness, and with comparable duties to perform on His behalf, why do men and women today, even scientists, think about the universe as they do?...”—Lyndon LaRouche¹

Anyone familiar with the writings of Lyndon LaRouche and other defenders of the American nation-state, knows that the British oligarchy has run out of options in its vain efforts to destroy the United States through military confrontation, and has decided instead, in favor of waging epistemological warfare against the population, with the ultimate goal of getting it to swallow actually deadly economic policies. Had it not been for the crucial intervention of the LaRouche Youth Movement (LYM), armed with the scientific method of humanists like Cusa, Kepler, Leibniz, and LaRouche himself, a fly on the wall at the February meeting of the AAAS (American Association for the Advancement of Science) might have thought that the British had succeeded.

The policy-shift which the oligarchy seeks is typified by its intention to insert Michael “Benito” Bloomberg as U.S. President or Vice President in 2009. It has begun an organizing drive, sophisticatedly named “Building America’s Future,” which has been led by “soul mates” New York Mayor Michael Bloomberg, California Gov. Arnie Schwarzenegger, and Judith Rodin, front-woman for the eugenics-promoting Rockefeller Foundation. Sadly, most of the thousands of scientists attending fawned over Rodin’s address to the conference on Feb. 15, after a day of seminars mostly pushing the Global Warming hoax. Rodin outlined the Foundation’s fascist vision not only the United States, but also the developing world.

A Dark Age Visionary

“‘Globalization,’ as proposed by the Jan. 19 Los Angeles event of the Rockefeller Foundation’s Judith Rodin, in company with Governors Arnold Schwarzenegger and Ed Rendell, with Mayor Bloomberg, is a scheme for a new imperialism, a new Tower of Babel, a form of fascist imperial system, designed by the fascist Felix Rohatyn who played a culpable role, with George Shultz, in the work of the Nazi-inspired Pinochet government of Chile, an echo of the Shultz-Rohatyn Pinochet project, whose establishment now would destroy the essential foundations of any civilized form of human life among the peoples of this planet...”

—Lyndon LaRouche, “On Monadology”

The theme of the AAAS conference was “Science with a Global Perspective”; various seminars were put into context by the Feb. 16 presentation by Rodin, who spoke on the threat of the unplanned development of cities in especially third world countries, which would exacerbate the climate crisis (most attendees having been thoroughly duped or blackmailed into accepting this premise). She spoke in true sophist fashion about “smart globalization,” and that “the poor” (eugenics-speak for “those we want to kill”), in fact, will suffer the most if we don’t deal with climate change, since they rely on nature so much! “There are currently 50 million climate refugees,” Judith pleaded, full of emotion, to the audience, hoping no one had the brains, or guts, to challenge her.

A clear idea of the actual “Building America’s Future” program was given, when Rodin began to sing the praises of the thriving tourism industry in Africa, which in fact, totally misrepresents what the Rockefeller Foundation means when it speaks about “development.” The (actually bankrupt) private sector, she urged, must play a leading role in creating “green jobs” in the United States, too: “We will harness the power of global markets” to achieve this, she said. Rodin then reminisced about the conference held by the Rockefeller Foundation in Bellagio, Italy, in September 2007—the same location where the Foundation hosted a forum for the “Limits to Growth” depopulation movement, in 1968.

LYM members Alexandra Perebikovsky and Meghan Rouillard approached Rodin after her speech. Perebikovsky asked Rodin to clarify the following paradoxical point: “LaRouche PAC wants to know why the Rockefeller Foundation doesn’t call for a debt moratorium and the development of nuclear power for these poor countries if it’s concerned about the situation there?... Your plan, as stated, won’t work.”

Rodin became visibly disturbed, claiming that the Foundation is prevented by stringent laws from “lobbying,” so they can’t take a position on these things. The LYM challenged her again on why nothing less than nuclear technology will develop our human economy, at which point she hastily left the discussion.

The oligarchy’s world outlook was elaborated the next evening in a sophisticated presentation on “One Laptop per Child,” another thinly disguised prescription for mass-death, in a world where children die of famine and disease.

It would be wise for the AAAS to disassociate itself from Rodin and company. No scientist with any shred of humanity would want to be labeled as a collaborator in their plot to reduce the world population to less than 1 billion persons.

1. “My Early Encounter with Leibniz: On Monadology,” EIR, Feb. 22, 2008.