

American convicted of espionage for Israel, mustered up his best Joe McCarthy imitation, ranting to the small audience that any criticism of the Bush Administration's conduct of the war could be "interpreted in such a way as to hurt national resolve . . . [and] embolden the enemy." He urged, "We must pay special attention to friends like Saudi Arabia and Egypt whose ongoing use of media are creating problems for our allies"—an obvious reference to Israel. In the crazed world of ACTA and AVOT, a criticism of Sharon's Nazi actions is tantamount to treason against America.

Leading Promoters of The New McCarthyism

American Council of Trustees and Alumni (ACTA)

1726 M Street, NW
Suite 800 Washington, D.C. 20036 (202) 467-6787
888-ALUMNI-8, <http://www.goacta.org>

Founded in 1995 by Lynne Cheney and Sen. Joe Lieberman, who was described as "one of the most active members" of its advisory board by the New York Times of Aug. 24, 2000. Released Defending Civilization: How Our Universities are Failing America and What Can Be Done About It, on Nov. 11, 2001, with funding from the Randolph Foundation, the William and Karen Tell Foundation, and Jane H. Fraser. ACTA said it would send its blacklist to 3,000 trustees at colleges and universities across the nation.

ACTA contributed $3.4 billion to colleges and universities in 2000—the largest private source of support for higher education. It has created a network of agents through its Advisory Committees—Trustees' Council, Presidents' Council, Alumni Leadership Council, Scholars Council (including Irving Kristol's wife, Gertrude Himmelfarb), and Donors Working Group. Funding: From 1995 through 2000, ACTA received $1.3 million from the Olin Foundation, Bradley Foundation, Sarah Scaife Foundation, Earhart Foundation, and Castle Rock Foundation.

The Olin, Bradley, and Sarah Scaife Foundations fund the nexus of neo-conservative think-tanks such as Daniel Pipes' Middle East Forum (see Campus Watch, below), and Samuel Huntington's Olin Institute for Strategic Studies at Harvard. They promote: war on Iraq as the trigger for Huntington's Clash of Civilizations war with Islam; Sharon's genocide against the Palestinians; and attacks on American Muslims culminating in U.S. Attorney General Ashcroft's assault on Constitutional rights.

National Council members (board of directors): David

Attorney General John Ashcroft's attempt to set up a nationwide gestapo informant network was scrapped under public protest, so now an assortment of private agencies and foundations are trying to accomplish the same thing.

Circuit; member of U.S. Solicitor-General Ted Olson's "salon" for the impeachment of former President Clinton.

AVOT is an arm of Empower America

(202) 452-6216, <http://www.avot.org>

Launched on March 12, 2002 by PNAC members William Bennett and Frank Gaffney, and James Woolsey. (All three signed an April 3, 2002 PNAC letter to President Bush to "stand with Israel" and overthrow Saddam Hussein.) In a full-page ad in the New York Times on March 10, 2002, AVOT called radical Islam "an enemy no less dangerous and no less determined than the twin menaces of fascism and communism we faced in the 20th Century,” and denigrated those who “are attempting to use this opportunity to promulgate their agenda of ‘blame America first.’ ”

It recommends as sources on the Mideast, the Middle East Media Research Institute (MEMRI), Bernard Lewis, and Samuel Huntington. In September 2002, AVOT began a series of campus teach-ins and lectures.

<http://www.campus-watch.org>

Created and sponsored by Philadelphia-based Middle East Forum (MEF), Campus Watch was launched on Sept. 18, 2001, listing “dossiers” on 8 professors and 14 universities, now expanded to 21 universities. Encourages students and faculty members to provide names of Middle Eastern studies professors who criticize Israel. MEF spun off from the Foreign Policy Research Institute (FPRI), which houses some of the leading right-wing Zionist networks in the U.S. foreign policy apparatus. MEF publishes Middle East Quarterly, promoting Islam as an enemy image and embracing Huntington’s policy.

Daniel Pipes—director of FPRI (1986-93); director of MEF; columnist for Jerusalem Post and New York Post; member, AEI’s New Atlantic Initiative; author of a book on conspiracies that slanders Lyndon LaRouche. Khalid Duran—MEF editorial board member who worked with Steven Emerson to produce “Jihad in America,” for the Public Broadcasting System, promoting the idea of Islam as the enemy. Martin Kramer—Middle East Quarterly editor, Tel Aviv University. Patrick Clawson—director of research of the pro-Likud Washington Institute for Near East Policy.

Dr. Lynne Cheney and The Pollard Gang

Vice Presidential wife Lynne Cheney is a hard-core neo-conservative, closely linked to the Israeli agents at the American Enterprise Institute, including AEI’s “universal fascist,” Michael Ledeen, and Richard Perle, the Iraq war’s chief chicken-hawk running the Defense Policy Board. Both came under scrutiny during the 1980s investigation of Israeli spy, U.S. citizen Jonathan Jay Pollard.

The “Cheney family circle” includes Michael Ledeen and his wife Barbara; the “granddaddies” of neo-conservatism; Irving Kristol and his wife Gertrude Himmelfarb; and also their son, William Kristol. Dick Cheney’s contribution to this neo-conservative coven is his chief of staff, Lewis “Scooter” Libby, a protégé of Deputy Defense Secretary Paul Wolfowitz. Libby was the attorney for Wall Street fraudster Marc Rich, who arranged his Presidential pardon after massive payoffs to the right-wing Israeli lobby in 2000.

Lynne Cheney has a gaggle of close female associates who stand out as Washington’s leading McCarthyites. She Cheney has long-admired Himmelfarb—also known as “Himmler-farb” for her neo-con thought-policing—and Cheney brought her in as a top adviser when Cheney was chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities (1986-93). The female bonding is one of the tracks through which Himmler-farb’s son William Kristol’s study on American Empire, for the Project on the New American Century (PNAC), became the September 2002 White House National Security Strategy document.

In 1992, Barbara Ledeen recruited Cheney to the Independent Women’s Forum (IWF). Ledeen has been associated since the early 1980s, with the terrorist plot against Jerusalem’s Temple Mount by right-wing Israelis and Christian Zionists associated with the U.S. neo-conservatives. Commentators say IWF “is neither independent nor a forum.” It is an appendage of the network of foundations (see Profile) that finance the right-wing Christian Zionist/Jabotinskyite organizations. IWF has received more than $2 million from the Bradley/Olin/Scaife and Smith Richardson nexus, and includes Wendy Gramm, wife of Sen. Phil Gramm, who brought us the notorious Enron deregulation swindle; and Labor Secretary Elaine Chao, wife of Sen. Mitch McConnell, another Iraq war fanatic.
